

Panel 3: Epistemology of identity studies: from inter-disciplinarity to trans-disciplinarity

- 13:00 – 14:45
- Chairs: Maria Teresa Schettino, Professor, University of Haute-Alsace and Airton Pollini, Professor, University of Haute-Alsace
“Introduction: A room with several views. Interdisciplinarity in Classical studies and approaches to contexts of multiple identities”
 - Verena Winiwarter, Professor, University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
“The other kind of research. Power, epistemological status and subject construction in cross-, multi- and interdisciplinary scholarship”
 - Sara Köser, Professor, Karlsruhe Institute of Technology and Elisa Merkel, Researcher, Hochschule Fresenius Heidelberg
“Standing on the shoulders of giants – How Social Identity Theory contributes to an inter- and transdisciplinary understanding of identities”
 - Carola Fricke, Post-doc, University of Freiburg
“Thinking Urban Policies through a Trans-disciplinary Perspective”

Panel 4: Narration, narratology, identity

- 15:00 – 16:30
- Chair: Angeliki Delikari, Associate Professor, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
 - Régine Battiston, Professor, University of Haute-Alsace
“Identity in narration, identity through narration: Max Frisch, Marlen Haushofer, W.G. Sebald, Stefan Zweig, Hermann Hesse”
 - Sämi Ludwig, Professor, University of Haute-Alsace
“Intercultural narratology: recognizing ideologies”
 - Dagmara Świerkowska, PhD candidate, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
“Collective identity and European identity in poetry slam. Material from the European Poetry Slam Championship in Brussels”

Presentation: EPICradles

- 16:30 – 17:00
- Verena Kremling, Head of Strategy, University of Freiburg