

Saturday, 26 February

Panel 5: Languages. Expressing or shaping identities?

- 9:15 – 10:45
- Chair: Katarzyna Jankowiak, Assistant Professor, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
 - Olga Turcan, Researcher, University of Strasbourg
“Public consultation on the use of languages in the EU institutions, bodies and agencies: which languages for which identities?”
 - Magdalena Zabielska, Researcher, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
“Foreigners’ experiences with healthcare institutions in the Polish city of Poznań”
 - Pavel Del Angel, Researcher, University of Haute-Alsace
“Identity through language in Munster, Alsace”

Panel 6: All quiet on the Eastern Front, or learning from identities in the other part of Europe?

- 11 – 12:45
- Chair: Manuela Boatca, Professor, University of Freiburg
 - Ségolène Plyer, Associate Professor, University of Strasbourg
“Separate peoples but shared histories (identities)? The ERC project NEPOSTRANS and the making of a Danubian space’s connected history from 1914 to the mid-1920s”
 - Maciej Frackowiak, Researcher, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan and Jacek Kubera, Researcher, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
“Back to Znaniecki. The relevance of biographical methods in contemporary urban identities research”
 - Catherine Roth, Associate Professor, University of Haute-Alsace
“Transylvanian Saxons and collective identity through implicit meanings”
 - Martine Schnell, Researcher, University of Haute-Alsace
“From divided Literature to fragmented Identity in the GDR: Christa and Gerhard Wolf”

Panel 7: European identity from law to reality

- 13:45 – 14:45
- Chair: Wladyslaw Jozwicki, Assistant Professor, Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznan
 - Hocine Sadok, Associate Professor, University of Haute-Alsace
“European identity, a legal identity?”
 - Alexandra Makridou, Researcher, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki
“The Management of the Refugee Crisis and the “Cracks” in the Common European Identity”